

The Constitution of Aggie Sisters for Christ
Aggie Sisters for Christ
ASC
Texas A&M University

Article I

Name

The name of this organization shall be Aggie Sisters for Christ, also known as ASC.

Article II

Purpose and Goals

“My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” Colossians 2:2-3 (NIV)

The goal of Aggie Sisters for Christ is to glorify Jesus Christ in everything we do (...whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God... I Corinthians 10:31b). Our focus is Jesus Christ; therefore, we will strive to learn more about Him and grow in His word (But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ... 2 Peter 3:18). We desire to provide members with Christian fellowship and spiritual accountability so that our personal relationships with Jesus Christ may be enhanced (As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another... Proverbs 27:17). Following the example of Jesus Christ, we will serve our community (Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people... Ephesians 6:7). Fulfilling our calling as presented in the Great Commission, we will share truth with those around us (But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have... 1 Peter 3:15a).

Article III

Membership

- Section 1      Number
The total number of active members shall not be limited.
- Section 2      Eligibility
ASC is a non-selective organization where students are eligible for active status if they are currently enrolled at Texas A&M University or a local community college and are in good standing with the University.
- Section 3      New Member meetings and guidelines
- A. New member informational meetings shall be held over a one-week time period, beginning the week following the first or second regular ASC meeting.
  - B. Required commitment forms will be given to the designated Officers on the day of New Member Commitment Night. If the commitment form is not turned in under these conditions, the student shall not be eligible for membership in ASC unless otherwise determined by New Member Chairmen.
  - C. The student shall not be eligible for membership in ASC if the designated number of points are not obtained by the determined date, unless otherwise determined by the New Member Chairmen.
  - D. New members are required to attend a New Member Retreat as well as each New Member Meeting held on the day of regular ASC meetings, which are designated by the New Member Chairmen. The absences for new member events must not exceed two unexcused absences. If the absences exceed two, the member must communicate with the New Member Chairmen.
  - E. Members shall read and maintain familiarity with the Constitution.
  - F. Membership is open to one who meets the above requirements, upholds the goals and values of this organization, and follows the guidelines as set forth in these by-laws.
- Section 4      Voting for new members
- A. Each member shall have full voting privileges after fulfilling new member requirements as set forth by the New Member Chairmen.

- B. The new member may vote on informal issues at all times.
- C. The President has the discretion, with the approval of the Officers, to distinguish between a formal and informal vote.

Section 5

Active membership and duties of membership

- A. Each new member shall be declared an active member after they have successfully completed the new member responsibilities as set forth by the organization.
- B. In order to maintain active status, a member must complete the following:
  - 1. Fulfill the attendance requirements stated in the constitution.
  - 2. Maintain the goals and standards of this organization.
  - 3. Fulfill the financial obligations to the organization each semester as stated in the constitution.
  - 4. Fulfill the service requirements of completing 3 service points each semester.
    - i. One of the service projects per semester is allowed to be outside of an ASC organized service event and two of the service projects can be a "Make-Your-Own."
    - ii. An unexcused absence, including signing up and failing to attend a service project, shall result in an additional service project requirement. A member who signs up for a project and is unable to attend must contact the Outreach Chair 24 hours prior to the project. The Outreach Chair has the discretion, with the approval of the Officers, to distinguish an excused absence.
      - 1. If a member cancels within 24 hours and finds a replacement, she will not be additionally penalized.
    - iii. An overnight project within ASC counts as two service points (e.g. Pine Cove).
    - iv. Due dates will be determined by the Outreach Chair.
  - 5. Obtain the required number of social points as set forth by the Officers.
    - i. Old Girls: 5 social points
    - ii. New Girls: 10 social points
  - 6. Members in leadership will receive 3 social points per semester upon completion of duties outlined in the constitution.
  - 7. Members who have perfect attendance at small group and/or all ASC meetings will receive 1 social point at the end of the semester for each. (Perfect attendance is qualified as having zero unexcused absences and fewer than three excused absences.)
- C. Members are encouraged to have an active involvement in a local church body separate from participation in the organization.

Section 6

Dues

- A. Dues shall be paid each semester by all members who choose to remain active, no later than the appointed date.
- B. The amount to be paid shall be determined by the Treasurer. The figure shall be determined based on the anticipated expenses for that semester.
- C. The amount of and due date of new member dues shall be determined by the ASC Officers.
- D. If the dues are not paid by the designated 1st installment date, the member will be charged a $5 late fee per week, maximum of $20. If the full amount of dues have not been paid by the week containing the 2nd installment, then that member will become inactive for not fulfilling their financial obligations to ASC.
- E. If a member fails to fulfill their financial obligations to ASC by the end of the semester, they will be dismissed from the organization.
- F. If a member is unable to pay dues because of extenuating circumstances, a scholarship application may be written to the Treasurer requesting exemption of payment for that semester by a date set by the Officers.

Section 7

Probation

Probation is the status of an active member who has failed to meet organization requirements that previous semester and who must fulfill all current semester requirements or lose organization membership.

A member shall be declared on probation for one semester under the following circumstances:

- A. Failure to fulfill attendance requirements.
- B. Failure to fulfill service requirements of three service points from the previous semester and any additional required points.
- C. Failure to fulfill the designated social point requirements.

Probation terms:

- A. Probation will last one semester.
- B. A member MUST fulfill ALL attendance, service, and social requirements during the probationary semester in order to be reinstated as an active member. They also must fulfill these additional requirements by the point deadline of the probationary semester in order to become active. Any of the following may apply:
  1. If on probation for failing to meet the required number of service points, a member must make up that number of incomplete service points in the following semester in addition to the required number of points during the probationary semester.
  2. If on probation for absences, the member must complete an additional point per unexcused absence exceeding the allowed two, either social or service, during the probationary semester.
  3. If on probation for failing to meet the required number of social points, a member must make up that number of incomplete social points in the following semester in addition to the required number of points during the probationary semester.
  4. Probation requirements should not exceed New Member point requirements.
- C. The Officers may request that the member serve a probationary period if they have reason to believe that the member may not be able to uphold the standards and ideals of this organization.

Section 8

Removal of a Member

Reasons for removal are:

- A. Failure to fulfill probation obligations within the semester it was given.
- B. More than one consecutive semester of inactive membership status.
- C. Failure to fulfill financial obligations to the organization.

The member will be notified in writing of the impending removal and given an opportunity to share their perspective. The member has one week to appeal to the ASC Officers, in writing or at a scheduled meeting. Should the Officers vote to remove the member, the member will be notified in writing and may rejoin active membership upon completion of another New Member semester.

Section 9

Inactive Status

Inactive status occurs when a student elects to not participate in ASC functions for a semester, but maintains membership status. Inactive members are excused from organization requirements contingent on their communication of their change of status as declared by the constitution.

A member shall be declared inactive under the following circumstances:

- A. The student makes it known to the Secretary that the student wishes to become inactive by the second meeting of the semester. If this is not done, the student will be placed on probation for all applicable unfulfilled requirements.
- B. The student violates the Dues Policy as stated in Article III Section 6.

- C. Inactive status will last one semester, but members may be inactive for up to two nonconsecutive semesters. If more than two semesters are taken as inactive, the student must complete New Member point requirements upon their return.

Appeals:

Members can appeal their probationary, inactive, or dismissed status to the Officers. After reviewing the circumstances of appeal, the ASC Officers will make a decision concerning the future status of the member.

Section 10

Change of Status

Members wishing to either go inactive or return to active ASC status must complete and turn in a Change of Status form by the second meeting of the semester. If a member goes inactive because of dues, they can become active again once their financial obligations are met within one semester.

Article IV

Officers

  - E. These Officers shall be known as the Aggie Sisters for Christ Officers.
- Section 2 Term of Office
The elected and appointed Officers shall serve for one year beginning at the conclusion of Spring election to the conclusion of the following Spring election.
- Section 3 Requirements of Officers
Students elected as Officers in this organization shall:
- (a) Have a minimum cumulative and semester grade point ratio (GPR) as stated below and meet that minimum cumulative and semester GPR in the semester immediately prior to the election/appointment, the semester of election/appointment and semesters during the term of office.
    1. For undergraduate students, the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is 2.00. In order for this provision to be met, at least six hours (half-time credits) must have been taken for the semester under consideration. In one limited circumstance, summer semester hours may be applied to this provision. In order for summer coursework to qualify toward a grade point ratio prior to election/appointment, at least six credit hours must have been taken during the course of either the full or two summer session(s).
    2. For graduate level students the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is a 3.00 and for first professional students the minimum cumulative and semester GPR is 2.50. In order for this provision to be met, at least four hours (half-time credits) must have been taken for the semester under consideration. In one limited circumstance, summer semester hours may be applied to this provision. In order for summer coursework to qualify toward a grade point ratio prior to election/appointment, at least four credit hours must have been taken during the course of either the full or two summer session(s) unless fewer credits are required as they complete the final stages of their degree.
  - (b) Be in good standing with the university and enrolled:
    1. at least half time (six or more credit hours), if an undergraduate student (unless fewer credits are required to graduate in the spring and fall semesters) during the term of office. Students enrolled in the Blinn TEAM program are also eligible to hold an office, as long as the student is meeting all applicable Blinn TEAM requirements and is in good standing with the program.
    2. at least half time (four or more credits), if a graduate level student (unless fewer credits are required in the final stages of their degree as defined by the Continuous Registration Requirement) during their term of office.

- (c) Be ineligible to hold an office should the student fail to maintain the requirements as prescribed in (a) and (b).
- 1. We expect Officers to model behavior that is consistent with the values, goals, and mission of the organization. An Officer who fails to uphold the moral integrity of the organization's values, implied from the mission statement and goals, will be confronted and allowed to explain their actions in an open-minded discussion, as well as to defend their commitment to the values of the organization.
- 2. Officers, or other members of leadership, shall not hold more than one position of leadership per semester, unless a vacancy occurs and the Executive Officers see that a current member of leadership will be best suited to continue the position in the other's absence.
- 3. If an Officer were to step down from their position at any point during their term of leadership and desire to remain an active member, they will be asked to complete an additional 3 service points before the next due date of membership points. The purpose of this requirement is to establish accountability in leadership.

- Section 4      Time of Elections
Elections shall be held during a regular meeting. Officers shall be elected at the second to last meeting of the spring semester.
- Section 5      Nominations
  - A. Nominations for all Officer positions must be made at least two weeks before elections in the spring semester. These nominations are to be taken verbally. A member may choose to nominate themselves by submitting an application to the President.
  - B. Each nominee must submit a signed letter of application, to be read by all members, to the President during the seven days after the meeting in which nominations were taken. If no letter is received, the nominee will be assumed to have declined the nomination.
  - C. Officers must be elected from the active membership of Aggie Sisters for Christ and shall not be on probation during any term in which they serve. Upon being placed on probationary status, the member shall be removed from the office.
- Section 6      The Election of President

An Officer may be removed from office only by a three-fourths vote of the Officers or by the discretion of the President and Advisor. Reasons for removal include:

- A. Violation of the Alcohol & Substance Policy, as stated in Article VIII
- B. Failure to meet requirements of office

The Officer will be notified in writing of the impending removal and given an opportunity to share their perspective. The Officer has one week to appeal to the ASC Officers, in writing or at a scheduled meeting. Should the Officer be removed, another election or appointment will be held immediately to fill the vacancy.

Section 12

Additional Powers and Responsibilities

Each Officer shall have any and all powers and responsibilities as enumerated in the by-laws of this constitution.

Article VII

Voting

Each member shall have one vote on any matter placed before this body. Each new member shall have full voting privileges after fulfilling the new member requirements as set forth by the New Member chairmen. Until that time, new members will be allowed to participate in the informal voting alone as specified in Article III, Section 4. In all cases, unless otherwise specified in this constitution or by-laws, a majority vote will rule. Three-fifths of the entire active membership shall constitute a quorum. A quorum must be present before a vote can be taken that will bind the actions of the organization.

Article VIII

Alcohol & Substance Policy

Section 1

Member Policy

- A. At no time shall any alcoholic beverage or drug be served or consumed at any ASC function, nor shall any member or guest arrive under the influence. Possession or consumption of substances, or intoxication of a member or guest before or at any ASC function, shall be grounds for removal from the function at the discretion of the Officers present. An ASC function shall be defined as any meeting, social, or service event sponsored or organized by ASC.
  - B. At no time shall any substances be consumed or purchased while wearing ASC apparel.
  - C. Members are not to consume substances illegally, in public or private.
- A violation of any part of this policy shall be grounds for placing a member on probationary status.

Section 2

Leadership Policy

A member in leadership is defined as any member serving as a Committee Head, a leader of a New Member group or small group, a Chair position, or any ASC Officer. These members will adhere to all rules stated for members. These members are not to consume substances illegally, in public or private. These members of legal drinking age are not to consume alcohol in establishments in the Bryan/College Station area where 51% of profits are derived from alcohol sales. Under Texas state law, establishments where 51% of profits are derived from alcohol sales are required to post a sign in the entrance declaring so. Whether in public or private, these members will not irresponsibly consume alcohol and should refrain from posting pictures or videos of substance consumption on social media. A violation of this policy shall be determined by the Officers according to the following system:

- A. The first violation of this policy will be addressed by the overseeing Officer.
- B. The second violation of this policy will be addressed by the Executive Officers.
- C. The third violation of this policy shall be grounds for removal from office as stated in Article VI, Section 11.

The purpose of this leadership substance policy is based on the following biblical truths:

- James 3:1 “Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.”
- 1 Corinthians 8:9 “Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak.”
- 1 Peter 5:8 “Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.”
- Matthew 18:15-16 “If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. But if they do not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”
- 1 Peter 3:15 “But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect.”

We chose to make this sacrifice in order to set an example for our sisters and non-believers so we may further the kingdom by sharing the gospel through our actions.

Article IX

Attendance Policy

Section 1

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to promote accountability and regular attendance at the meetings and functions of Aggie Sisters for Christ. In order for the goals and precepts of ASC to be achieved, attendance at planned meetings and events is not only needed but also required.

Section 2

Attendance Requirements

The following attendance requirements shall apply to all of the active members of the organization:

- A. The absences for weekly meetings must be no more than two unexcused absences. If beyond two, the member in question must address the Secretary.
- B. The absences for weekly small group meetings must be no more than two unexcused absences. If beyond two, the member in question must address the Secretary.
- C. Regular ASC meetings shall be held as deemed necessary by the Officers.

- D. New members are required to attend a New Member Retreat and each New Member Meeting held on the day of regular ASC meetings, which are designated by the New Member Chairmen. The absences for new member events must be no more than two unexcused absences. If absences exceed two, the member must address the New Member Chairmen.
- E. Signing up and failing to attend a service project shall result in an additional service requirement.
- F. Social events are strongly encouraged.
- G. Members of committees shall be required to attend at least half of the committee meetings. Further requirements of attendance shall be determined and made clear by the individual committee heads.
- H. Excused absences shall be approved at the discretion of the Secretary. The Secretary must be notified in writing within two weeks of the absence in order for the absence to be excused.

Section 3

Excused Absence Criteria
